

This special part of Menorca , well away from it all with no signs of tourism, gives wonderful walking, bird watching , star gazing in a quiet and peaceful location ideal for meditation and inner study.

Drive along a country lane to reach Binixems it is in a precious and special part of the island. On a clear night you will see the stars so clearly as there is no light pollution around. The nearest neighbor to Binixems is approx 2 kilometers away. From here you have easy access to beaches on both the North and the South coasts as well as to the capital of Mahon, all being no more than 20 minutes away.

Staying here is to experience a Menorca lost to many

Casa de Senores

Large farmhouse kitchen/dining room with log burner

Down the lane from Binixems is the Hermita de Sant Llorenc , dating back to the 1300s.

Nearest village is Alaior, approx 6 kilometers, a 10 minute drive, 15minute drive to Mahon. There are walks in plenty starting from Binixems with many bridle ways and pathways to choose from.

Within 10 minutes, shopping needs can be catered for in Alaior, with restaurants, supermarkets, bakers, butchers and general stores. If you need more then the capital, Mahon is 12 kilometers away, 15-20 minutes, or Es Mercadal which is also 20 minutes and has several excellent restaurants. Fornells or Son Bou can be reached in the same time. Binixems is near to no where and close to everything you need.